2023 Resources for Success

National training effort to ensure distributors and contractor are well informed about 2023 regulations and responsibilities to ensure compliance

Customer facing materials including brochure, companion presentation, and video to educate on the new regulations

PMNs that provide rich detail on product transition and critical dates, as well as product launches

Scheduled webinars and virtual conferences to transmit information and answer any questions directly

A DAIKIN BRAND

Our continuing commitment to quality products may mean a change in specifications without notice.
